

Geography Study Guide

This must be completed in your binder on a separate sheet of notebook paper. All questions and vocabulary should be numbered. All of these can be answered by using your binder contents.

Vocabulary: define the following terms-

1. Geography
2. Equator
3. Compass Rose
4. Political map
5. Physical map
6. ~~Geography~~ Prime Meridian
7. Migration
8. Immigrant
9. Longitude
10. Latitude

11. What is relative location? Give an example.
12. What is absolute location? Give an example.
13. What are the 5 Themes of Geography? List them and explain each.
14. What is a region? Give an example of a physical/geographic region and of a cultural region.

15. Briefly compare and contrast maps and globes in list form.

3 similarities, 2 differences

16. What is a pull factor? List 5 pull factors

17. What is a push factor? List 5 push factors

18. What does a Map scale measure?

19. Why do geographers study the 5 Themes of Geography?

20. List all four hemispheres and what lines divide each. Be familiar with where those are located on a map and list what continents are found in each hemispheres.

Geography Study Guide

This must be completed in your binder on a separate sheet of notebook paper. All questions and vocabulary should be numbered. All of these can be answered by using your binder contents.

Vocabulary: define the following terms-

1. Geography
2. Equator
3. Compass Rose
4. Political map
5. Physical map
6. ~~Geography~~ Prime Meridian
7. Migration
8. Immigrant
9. Longitude
10. Latitude

11. What is relative location? Give an example.

12. What is absolute location? Give an example.

13. What are the 5 Themes of Geography? List them and explain each.

14. What is a region? Give an example of a physical/geographic region and of a cultural region.

15. Briefly compare and contrast maps and globes in list form.

3 similarities, 2 differences

16. What is a pull factor? List 5 pull factors

17. What is a push factor? List 5 push factors

18. What does a Map scale measure?

19. Why do geographers study the 5 Themes of Geography?

20. List all four hemispheres and what lines divide each. Be familiar with where those are located on a map and list what continents are found in each hemispheres.