|  | Name   |                                      |               | cabulary 1 acとから ギム | 1              |            |                |            |
|--|--|--------------------------------------|---------------|-------------------------|----------------|------------|----------------|------------|
|  | Preponderance  | Amorph                               |               | opulous                 |                |            | eulogies       |            |
|  | Vestments  | dormient                             | amorphou      | s ma                    | itron          | endosk     | eleton         |            |
|  | hydrophobia  | novice                               |               | ibiansPhibians      |                |            |                |            |
|  |  |                                      |               |                         |                |            |                |            |
|  | 1.A closet is one  | place VES                            | tments        | ŝ are sto               | ored.          |            |                |            |
|  | 2.Stanley was a/just started the o   |                                      | CE_in h       | is karate clas          | s. He was th   | e only stu | udent who ha   | d          |
|  | 3. You will learn that Amphibians can live on both water and land.  4. Humans have a/an EndoSkeleton . Luckily, our bones are on the inside of bodies. |                                      |               |                         |                |            |                |            |
|  |  |                                      |               |                         |                |            |                |            |
|  | 5.Josie never wa   | nted to swim in                      | the lake. She | suffered fror           | n hyd          | ropho      | soid.          |            |
|  | 6 Stone Mountain in Georgia is an example of a lan   |                                      |               |                         |                |            |                |            |
|  | 7. Bears are    | ormit nt                             | during win    | ter months. I    | All biological | systems    | of their bodie | 3 S |
| 8. Most of the bubbles we blew were Amorphous . They had no defined s |  |                                      |               |                         |                |            | d shape.       |            |
|  | 9.At his funeral, Mr. Bottoms friends and family gave lengthy Eulogies speeches reflected the good, kind man he had been.                                     |                                      |               |                         |                |            |                |            |
| 6  | 10. Stephanie co   |                                      |               |                         |                | ner back.  |                |            |
|  | 11. Ms. Keeting a  |                                      |               |                         | _ of the frate | ernity ho  | use. She cook  | ed         |
|  | 12. The mall is a the sun, so they   | very POPMturn to shopping | 10us          | place on ra             | iny days. Pe   | ople can   | 't hang out in |            |